

MAKING A DIFFERENCE ONE ROUND AT A TIME

Providing underprivileged and at risk youth with a constructive alternative to self defeating behavior through an athletic and mentoring program.

YOUTH CENTER PROGRAMS

- Helpin' Hands Community Service Program
- Boxing and Fitness program
- Educational Enhancement Program
- TTAAG - Teens Taking Action Against Graffiti

HELPIN' HANDS COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAM

The Helpin' Hands program has given area youth the opportunity to become assets to their community through meaningful involvement in activities such as community clean-ups, cultural celebration and more.

BOXING AND FITNESS PROGRAM

CYAC amateur boxing and fitness program is a structured physical fitness program aimed at addressing the physical fitness needs of area youth. Youth participate in various boxing workouts consisting of bag work, running program and calisthenics, developing self worth, self-esteem, and respect for themselves and others.

EDUCATIONAL ENHANCEMENT PROGRAM

CYAC maintains close contact with parents and schools on the participants' academic progress. USA Boxing and law enforcement have made available scholarship opportunities for youth involved with the program. We have a volunteer tutor present at the center on a daily basis to help produce young people who desire to succeed in life.

TTAAG - TEENS TAKING ACTION AGAINST GRAFFITI

The program is a collaborative effort between the City of National City Graffiti Abatement Program and the TTAAG Project. The Program is designed to make a positive, lasting impact on the visual and physical environment of our National City neighborhoods.

For the 7th consecutive year, the Barona Band of Mission Indians, Community Youth Athletic Center, and the National Latino Peace Officer's Association have partnered to host the highly competitive "Barona's Battle of the Badges."

The charity boxing event will feature 10 bouts of pure excitement with law enforcement officer's "duking it out" in the ring to help raise money for CYAC's life enriching youth programs. Barona's Battle of the Badges VII will be held on Saturday, June 20, 2009 at the Barona Valley Convention Center in Lakeside.

This sold-out event has raised over $300,000 to benefit CYAC's youth programs which focus on keeping kids off the streets and in school through boxing, tutorial, and mentoring programs.
